

Volunteer Role Description

Community Information Volunteer

What is a Community Information Volunteer?

Someone who can go out into local area and spread the word about Healthwatch and what we offer. This is an important role as you will both help promote Healthwatch East Sussex and gather local people's views.

What's in it for you?

- Becoming part of a friendly and dedicated team
- Meeting people from all walks of life
- Using and improving your communication skills
- Enjoying new experiences and learning
- Free on-going training opportunities

What's involved?

- Attending events whether that be a school fete or local group, to spread the word about Healthwatch.
- Being out and about. Both in the sunshine (season dependent) and indoor venues talking with local people about their views on the services they use.

This role will suit people who are:

- Friendly
- Approachable
- Enjoy talking to people

This role will require an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check.

This role is purely voluntary and this arrangement is not meant to be a legally binding one or an employment contract

Expenses	Out-of-pocket travel costs between home and volunteering place will be paid, and other reasonable expenses agreed in advance

This role will involve travelling around East Sussex, using either your own or public transport.

About Healthwatch East Sussex

Healthwatch East Sussex is an independent voice for the people of East Sussex. We're here to understand the lived experiences of people who use health and social care services in the county. We work hard to ensure that all sections of the community are represented in the decision-making process and that your views are listened to, recorded and reported.
