

Information for applicants

Job title: Independent Advocate

Contract: Permanent Contract

Location: 1 X Barrow in Furness

Hours: 24 per week

Salary: £21,100 FTE

Who we are

People First is an independent customer-led charitable organisation that has worked in Cumbria for almost 30 years. We have a deep understanding of our communities and the unique challenges of this area. We provide a wide range of support and information services across Cumbria and more recently Lancashire, aimed at helping people to live informed, respected, healthy and fulfilled lives. Our Head office is based in Carlisle, supported by offices in Barrow and Lancashire.

The Department

People First's Independent Advocacy Department hosts a range of projects focussing on supporting people to have their voices heard and their rights and choices respected. This includes both statutory and non-statutory advocacy delivery and the Advocacy Hub which provides information and support to enable people and their referrers to access timely advocacy.

Independent Advocacy is about supporting people to:

- Understand information and processes
- Explore options and choices
- Have their rights respected
- Tell people what is important to them

People First's Independent Advocacy offer provides both statutory advocacy and non-statutory to people who may need some extra support speaking up for themselves. We do this through a range of projects including:

- Independent Mental Capacity Advocacy
- Independent Care Act Advocacy
- Independent NHS Complaints Advocacy
- General Independent Advocacy
- Self Advocacy Groups

The Person

We are seeking someone to provide independent advocacy as defined by the Advocacy Charter, Advocacy Code of Practice, Mental Capacity Act 2005, Health and Social Care Act 2012 and Care Act 2014.

This includes:

- Supporting people who have been assessed as lacking capacity at a specific time about a specific decision to ensure their feelings, wishes, values and beliefs are kept central to decision making as defined by the Mental Capacity Act 2005 (IMCA).
- Supporting people who have substantial difficulty engaging in a local authority process such as a needs assessment or adult safeguarding to ensure their feelings, wishes, value and beliefs are listened to (Care Act Advocacy).
- Supporting people to raise concerns and complaints about NHS funded care and treatment.
- Providing facilitation and support to Self-Advocacy Groups across Cumbria to enable people to speak up for themselves and understand their rights and choices.

Person Specification

- Good all round level of education including office and IT skills.
- Knowledge of the legislation, policies and procedures that influence advocacy and social care provisions
- Understanding of Advocacy roles
- An understanding of the needs and issues faced by people accessing health and social care services.
- Ability to listen to, engage and communicate with people from diverse backgrounds, both face to face, written and over the telephone.
- Ability to display empathy in a range of situations and deal effectively with conflict situations
- A high standard of written and verbal skills including the ability to write letters and reports

- Excellent organisational skills with the ability to manage a complex workload and to prioritise effectively
- Ability to use supervision and peer support
- Willingness to undertake training, complete the National Advocacy Qualification and other training as identified
- Excellent interpersonal skills and a team player; able to ask for and give support to colleagues, students and volunteers
- Positive attitude to a fast paced working environment where tasks and systems need to be developed and updated on a regular and ongoing basis
- Creative, flexible and enthusiastic approach
- Commitment to valuing diversity and equal opportunities
- Commitment to providing a high quality service centred on the needs of individuals who are vulnerable and disadvantaged
- Able to work occasional evenings and weekends
- Understanding of complaint processes and the ability to raise concerns and challenges in a professional manner.
