The opportunity

Experts by Experience for Care (Education) and Treatment Reviews

Area: North East Region

Hours: As required

Salary: £20 per hour (up to 7 hours per day)

Who we are

People First is an independent customer-led charitable organisation that has worked in Cumbria for almost 30 years. We have a deep understanding of our communities and the unique challenges of this area. We provide a wide range of support and information services across Cumbria and more recently Lancashire, aimed at helping people to live informed, respected, healthy and fulfilled lives.

Our Head office is based in Carlisle, supported by offices in Barrow and Lancashire.

The department

The Education, Research and Inclusion Department co-ordinates the Care and Treatment Review contract for North Cumbria and the North East. We have been training and providing Experts by Experience for Care and Treatment Reviews since 2015.

The department also run a number of other programmes including Education, Research and inclusion projects. These programmes are all committed to putting forward the views and experiences of people to ensure that we all have the same chances in life, the same rights and the same choices.

What we need

We are looking for Experts by Experience to take part in Care (Education) and Treatment Reviews in the North East of England. Experts can be a person with learning difficulties and/or autism with lived experience of using services or a family carer.

A Care (Education) and Treatment Review (C(E)TR) happens when a child, young person or adult has been admitted or is at risk of being admitted into a specialist hospital. The underlying aim and ethos of the C(E)TR is to prevent a person going into hospital when it is not necessary and ensure that people are enabled to live back in the community.

You will work as a member of a Care (Education) and Treatment Review panel to carry out an independent review of a person's care and treatment. As an Expert by Experience you will make sure that a person's care and treatment is right for them, talk with them about how it can be made better and make sure that people receive the right care and treatment in the right place.

To do this role you will need

- To be able to talk directly to people and have confidence to ask questions
- To have an understanding of good care and support in the community
- To know what good practices and services look like
- To have an understanding of equality, diversity and a person centred approach
- 6 months personal experience of using mental health or social care services
- To be a good listener and help support individuals and family members in the Care and Treatment Review
- To be able to observe and notice things
- To be able to travel with/without support
- To work well with a team
- To be flexible, reliable and good at time keeping

Duties will include

The main information we need to find out at the Care and Treatment Review will be;

1. Is the person safe?
2. Is the person getting good care now?
3. What are their plans for the future?
4. Does the person need to be in hospital for their Care and Treatment? Can it be provided in the community?

We also ask you are able

- To bring another viewpoint to the Care (Education) and Treatment Review that comes from your own experience.
- To make sure that people and family carers remain at the centre of the Care (Education) and Treatment Review
- To help get better communication between people, families and services
- To take part in relevant training as required
- To keep information confidential
- To complete feedback reports with or without support
- To have a DBS check

Relationships

- Working directly with the Care (Education) and Treatment Review co-ordinator at People First
- Attending regular supervisions with the Care (Education) and Treatment Review co-ordinator
- Working with and contributing your skills and experience to the team of Experts by Experience at People First
- Working alongside clinicians and commissioners to carry out the Care (Education) and Treatment Review

Other Duties

Experts by Experience will attend People First Induction training and other specific training required. The duties outlined above may change as the needs of the organisation alter in line with current agendas.
